WORSHIP MINISTRY MISSION, VALUES AND GUIDELINES

MISSION STATEMENT:

We exist to worship God and to usher people into authentic wholehearted worship of God.

CORE VALUES:

1. Upward: A high priority on a vertical focus to God in our worship time.
2. Biblical: The content of everything we do in worship will conform to the truth of Scripture.
3. Head and Heart: Worship kindles strong emotions toward God, but should also appeal to clear thinking about God and spiritual things.
4. Earnestness and Intensity: Avoiding a trite, superficial, frivolous atmosphere, but instead setting an example of joy and passion and reverence and wonder.
5. Authenticity: (a) Being in right relationship with God and with people. (b) The atmosphere of a radical personal encounter with God, not the atmosphere of artistic or oratorical performance.
6. Un-distracting Excellence: We will seek to sing and play in such a way that worshippers will not be distracted from their worship of God.
7. Freedom of expression: Fostering an atmosphere in which worshippers feel freedom to personally and sincerely express their worship of God, whether it be inconspicuously (e.g. quiet or seated reflection) or demonstratively (e.g. raising hands or dancing) by encouraging God-consciousness rather than self-consciousness.
8. Diversity of styles: With Mosaic's commitment to reach out to and embrace people of all cultures and backgrounds, we recognize that there is a diversity of worship styles (e.g. liturgical, contemporary, etc) and musical styles (e.g. traditional, Celtic, rock, gospel, R&B, etc) that are helpful in ushering people into God's presence in worship. We will strive to be sensitive to these needs by facilitating worship that is reflective of our diversity.

GUIDELINES:

Auditions: Potential worship team participants will undergo an auditioning process which includes an interview and audition. At the end of the process, an invitation may (or may not) be extended to join the worship team. Invitations to join the worship team can be made on the basis of several factors: musical talent, spiritual maturity, worship ministry experience (or lack of), desire or potential for growth in ministry area, time availability, sense of God's leading and confirmation through prayer, etc.

Expectations: Worship team members are expected to be growing Christians who walk with God and are regular worshippers of God (individually as a lifestyle as well as corporately in worship service). Worship team members must be members of this church and agree with our Statement of Faith. They are expected to be punctual and faithful in their attendance to rehearsals and worship services. If they need to be absent, they should give the worship team leader sufficient notice so that any necessary adjustments can be made. There is a minimum six-month commitment expected of every worship team member.

Attitudes: Membership on the worship team is a privilege not a right. The purpose of the worship team ministry is not to showcase team members' talents or to draw attention to them in any way. Rather, it is to selflessly and inconspicuously direct the hearts of those they are leading toward God in worship. This attitude of humility will reflect itself in a spirit of reverence toward God, a spirit of submission toward the worship team leader, and a spirit of teamwork toward fellow members of the worship team.
